Industry Leader, Victor Pynn, Joins Vindow Inc. as Chief Executive Officer

May 4, 2022 – Miami, FL – Vindow Inc. – the cloud-based travel technology platform that brings buyers and sellers of contracted accommodations together to facilitate a more effective RFP and contracting process – is pleased to announce the appointment of industry veteran, Vic Pynn, as Chief Executive Officer (CEO).

Vic comes to Vindow with more than 20 years of experience as a business leader, successful entrepreneur, author and long-time travel technology executive. As CEO at Vindow, Vic will be working closely with Founder, Ken Shanley, to execute the company's strategic vision, and overseeing all internal operations to ensure strategic goals are met, or exceeded, to enable Vindow's continued growth.

"I'm excited to expand my involvement with Vindow, transitioning from a member of the Advisory Board to this leadership role," said Vic. "Vindow is well-positioned to revolutionize the way in which contracted hotel rooms are sourced. Their innovative approach harnesses the power of AI in a transparent online marketplace that has the potential to transform the corporate travel industry."

In his more than two decades in the travel industry, Vic has been widely recognized for his ability to guide global companies in achieving business excellence, maximizing their talent and fostering authentic leadership, using his expertise in a variety of business disciplines, including Operations, Finance, Sales, Client Management and Human Resources; in fact, Vic was named one of the 25 Most Influential Travel Executives in Corporate Travel by Business Travel News.

"Vic has an impeccable reputation in the travel technology industry and we're very proud to have him leading our team," said Vindow Founders, Ken Shanley and Andrea Coronel-Shanley. "We know that Vic's extensive experience, in-depth industry knowledge and network of connections will be key ingredients in our company's ability to execute our ambitious corporate goals over the coming years."

In the few years before joining Vindow, Vic has been in high demand to guide new and emerging companies in the travel sector. Previously, he held key executive leadership positions at leading travel companies, including Amadeus, TRX and American Express GBT.
